Dedication

*I*n the estimation of Governor Dummer Academy's 2002 graduating senior class, there are few teachers whose genuine care and warmth for his students amount to his. Walking by him on your way to class, it's seemingly impossible to resist smiling at his unusual, yet unforgettable, hello and cheerful disposition. And even on the bleakest and dreariest of days, when his classroom feels as if it could give way to its own bitter snowstorm at a moment's notice, his antic behavior and enthusiasm for teaching keep us actively engaged in learning. Always willing to offer a helping hand and pull his students through their living nightmares of numbers and equations, his eagerness to see us succeed pushes us to constantly strive to reach our true capabilities.

Perhaps his greatest quality, however, is his ability to connect with an extremely diverse group of students. Scholars, athletes, artists, and musicians alike have come to appreciate and look forward to encountering one of his many humble and lighthearted jokes. It's this selflessness that makes his caring personality so sincere and so well respected. A friend to all, his warm smiles and at times goofy grins remind us all to hold onto the simple joys in life and to never lose sight of what we really are: a community.

For helping us all appreciate the true value of a warm hello.

the 2002 Milestone is dedicated to

Where the heck is Bart?

Right: After a weekend of working on class unity, the seniors test their skills in the circle of trust.

Below: Alysson and Jenna take in the view and stop for a picture during the never ending hike up the mountain.

Above: Lingering by the fire truck just before heading home, these boys take the time to think back on all their great memories with one another.

Right: Brantwood proves to be too much for Yuri to handle as he dozes off on the ride home.

Right: Robb, Jillian, and Brooke catch up after a long summer apart.

Our life with you has never been boring, our dear Nina, Stina, our darling Kristina. From your early days at St. Michael's School, and your insistence on wearing only dresses to school, we knew you were destined to be determined, diligent, and exacting in all that you would accomplish. Your excellent work at the Hockaday School in Dallas, then the Brookwood School in Manchester and now Governor Dummer, have made us prouder than you will ever know. No one could have a more wonderful sister, or a daughter than you. We love you very much. Congratulations on completing 18 years of life in the "most delightful way"!
